CHURCH NOTES.

ADDITIONS AND BAPTISMS-SUNDAY-MEETING, &c., &c.

At the First Baptist church on Sunday pastor baptized one person. At Sidney (colored) church the pastor baptized eleven persons in the morning. At Leigh-Street church in the afternoon there was a very interesting meeting of the Missionary Society, at which there were addresses by Revs. J. Z. Tyler, J. A. French, and S. C. Clopton. At Grace-Street church, after communion in the morning, the pastor gave the hand of fellowship to eleven new members. At night Rev. J. O'B. Lowry, of Mobile Ala., preached an excellent sermon. At the Seventh-Street Christian church one person was received into the full fellowship of the church. At St. James (Episcopal) church Rev. Mr. Meade officiated in the morning, and Rev. tinguished the flames. Mr. Jones, of Pennsylvania, preached a beautiful sermon in the afternoon. At Grace church, the rector being absent, were read and the sermon preached by Rev. At St. Mark's church the services were read by Rev. Mr. Jones, of Brunswick county. At the Second Presbyterian church, Dr. Kentucky, preached in the morning. In the was continued. afternoon Rev. W. A. Campbell, of Manchester, conducted the services.

At the Third Presbyterian church four day. persons were received—two by certificate and two on profession.

morning. The church was closed at night, streets. At Nicholson-Street Methodist churchthere was no service at night, but Rev. R. B. Beadles preached in the morning. The anniversary celebration of the Broad-

Street Methodist Sunday school took place scriptures were read by Mr. A. L. West. The superintendent's report, showed the school to be in a good condition, numbering 226 pupils. Interesting addresses were made by Rev. P. A. Peterson, of Clay-Street church, and Rev. S. A. Steel, pastor of Broad-Street church. The exercises were interspersed with singing, led by Mr. John

A prayer-meeting under the auspices of the Young Men's Christian Association was held on the canal above the pump-house on Sunday afternoon. Interesting meetings were held at this point during the fall and winter months by Mr. W. Y. Shepherd, Jr., and his co-laborers with fruitful results. A prayer-meeting is held every day at 12 o'clock at Association Hall.

SHOOTING FESTIVAL.

The prize shooting and pic-nic of the Deutsche Schuetzen Geselschaft took place at the Schuetzen Park yesterday in accordance with announcement, and proved a most pleasurable affair. During the morning there were but few persons present except the "shootists" and their friends, but as the day advanced the crowd commenced to gather, and ere the evening had closed

After the shooting the prizes were deliv ered to the winners. Mr. D. G. Yuengling, the president of the Association, (the largest brewer in the country,) feeling that he ought to yield to the Vice-President in consequence of the fact that he was busy with the hospitalities of the occasion, called upon Mr. Klein to present the prizes. The winners in accordingly appeared and received their do-nations as tollows:

First prize-To William Euker, 1 silver pitcher, with goblet and patent holder.
Mr. Klein, in delivering this prize, said that this rivalry was a generous one, and that it was inaugurated two years ago with a view to invite competition here, as it had been invited in other cities, for good shots. He was satisfied that we could compete with other cities on the 26th of June at Philadelphia, and he hoped that those who had had the nerve to shoot to-day would have steamship the nerve to shoot then. Second prize-Silver pickle-stand, to M. W. Broaddus.

Third prize-Silver goblet, to George Klein. Fourth prize-Gold pen, to J. J. White, a police justice well known to all offenders in Richmond city.

Fifth prize—Gold pencil, to Charles T. Loehr, an old and well-known Confederate.

to Joseph Allard, Jr. Ninth prize-A match-holder, to A. G. Babcock, a "cool, icy man," who will never need a match until winter doth again over-

Tenth prize-Leather medal, to Mr. R. Van Winkle, who made several dates, if not shots, that are historical, and gained for himself lasting honors. A PRESS BANQUET. After the shooting Mr. Yuengling gave a have or banquet to his friends of the press. Toats were drank, good things were eaten; and among the sayings that were said most relishable to all present was that which ema-nated from Mr. Yuengling himself, to this effect: "Gentlemen, I have lost money in vour midst, but that makes no difference. I intend to make money in your midst, or else I will die in your midst."

Among the parties present was M. H. Prince, Esq., a prominent jeweller of Washington and an old resident of Richmond, who made a speech in rhyme, in which he stated that he had visited our city on business, and that he had, like Rip Van Winkle, found everybody dead, or at least everybody to gather, and cre the evening had closed the dancing-pavilion was filled with merry dancers.

The scene during the afternoon was quite animated; the sounds of the shots of the ambitious marksmen mingled with the music of the band, and the tender warblings of several candidates present enlivered their many constituents to the tune of one beer apiece, or perhaps a cigar for a "duffer."

THAT CENTRALLY-LOCATED and COMMO-DIOUS DWELLING lately occupied by JOHN S. WISE, Esq., corner of Ninth and Marshall streets, has been divided into FRENCH FLATS—a popular and economical system adopted in New York and other large cities—by which system small families at the least cost and no responsibility for other joint tenants obtain the great advantages of large first-class dwellings in central locations not otherwise secured. This desirable residence can accommodate three families, supplying them with ample kitchen, laundry, and servants' accommodations; hot and cold water. Apply to J. THOMPSON BROWN. 1113 Main street.

was generally very good, though up to 3 o'clock there seemed to be but few who were willing to contend against Mr. Broaddus, who had scored 106; but soon the ambitious ones set in, and he was in the condition of a candidate with a doubtful precinct to be heard from. William Euker, who had already had one shot, came to the fore at about 4 o'clock and scored 113. Justice White was at that time third best, but Mr. Klein, after a fair trial, got ahead of him and placed him fourth best. We give below the winning score:
